Steve Holy

With a blend of 50's rock & roll and traditional country, Steve Holy has crafted a unique sound that has won fans over across the nation. His debut single, "Don't Make Me Beg," was released in October 1999. His first No. 1 single "Good Morning Beautiful" was featured in the Jennifer Lopez movie Angel Eyes. Holy scored another No. 1 hit in 2006 with "Brand New Girlfriend," followed by an album of the same name on Curb Records.

Hits include: “Good Morning Beautiful,” “Brand New Girlfriend,” “Come on Rain” and more!

Night Ranger

Like no other band formed in the '80s, Night Ranger has both epitomized and transcended the sound and style of that decade. Since original members Jack Blades, Jeff Watson, Kelly Keagy and Brad Gillis reunited in 1996, they have brought their guitar-crunching, melodic brand of hard rock into the 21st century with unparalleled talent, energy and creativity.

Hits include: "Sister Christian," "(You Can Still) Rock In America," "When You Close Your Eyes," "Sentimental Street," "Goodbye," "Don't Tell Me You Love Me," and more!

Billy Currington

Country singer/songwriter Billy Currington burst onto the music scene in 2003 with the powerful Top 10 hit "Walk a Little Straighter" and the fun Top 5 smash "I Got a Feelin'."

When superstar Shania Twain heard Currington's soulful Southern voice, she knew she had found the perfect partner for the country duet "Party for Two," so Currington excitedly boarded a plane for Europe to work in the studio with Twain and legendary producer Robert "Mutt" Lange. Currington and Twain performed the song live on the 2004 Country Music Association Awards and a special Good Morning America show from Nashville.

Hits include: "Must Be Doin' Somethin' Right," "Why, Why, Why," "Whole Lot More," "Here I Am", "She's Got A Way With Me," "Party for Two," "That Changes Everything," "She Knows What to Do with a Saturday Night," "Walk a Little Straighter," "I Got a Feelin'" and more!
