Boater Education and Test Offered By Sheriff's Marine Division

Pendleton, Ore. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Marine Division will be offering Boater Education Training Thursday May 10, 2007. The class will be offered at two times; 1:00pm -5:00pm and 5:30pm - 9:30pm at the Umatilla County Justice Center at 4700 NW Pioneer Place in Pendleton. The training is free.

Students will be given the opportunity to take the Oregon State Marine Board Boater education test at the conclusion of the class to obtain their Boater Education Card. Boater education cards are required for anyone 60 years old or younger to operate a power boat in the State of Oregon.

Pre-registration is required by May 8 and students must pick up materials at the Sheriff's Office in Pendleton or Hermiston prior to the class. For more information contact Lt. Glen Diehl at 541-966-3606.
