Umatilla County Jail Evaluation

Every two years the Umatilla County Jail undergoes an evaluation conducted by jail inspectors from the Oregon State Sheriff's Association. The inspectors evaluate the jail on over 300 professional standards. Those standards include but are not limited to, cleanliness, safety standards for staff and inmates, the quality of food and medical service, policies and procedures, and the physical condition of the facility.

This year the Umatilla County Jail received a 98% compliance rating. Congratulations' to the staff of the Umatilla County Jail, for a job well done.
