Rural Addressing/Road Naming

Taken from Ordinance 93 Address Numbering and Road Names

Naming or Renaming Roadways in Umatilla County requires this form completed and returned to the County Planning Department with appropriate fees.

Umatilla County Ordinance 93, Address Numbering and Road Names, provides the guidance for naming roads and applying the standards. The following will assist when formulating possible Road Names for access roads; UC 93.18 (D) states in part:

“The proposed road name shall comply with the following standards:

- (1) Unnamed roads and renamed roads shall be limited to a maximum of 15 characters;
- (2) No duplication of names within the same 911 Dispatch Center [Emergency Service Area] and subject to the approval of the Address Committee for any conflicts;

(3) No similar sounding or confusing names; i.e., “Kline” versus “Cline;”
“Stumble” versus “Bumble;”

(4) Where road names are proposed for change, every effort will be made to maintain historical road names.”

FEES

Road Sign - $300.00

‘Private Drive’ Sign - $50.00

(Required if on State Highway)

Address Number Stake - $35.00

Renaming a Road - $50 (nonrefundable)

It is the responsibility of the applicant to submit a complete application with all necessary attachments. Planning staff can refuse an incomplete application.
