

Umatilla County SB 819 Reconsideration Application

Instructions

This form must be completed by the person applying for SB 819 review or the person’s attorney. Incomplete, false or misleading information will result in a denial.

Convictions and sentences for misdemeanor crimes and for the crime of aggravated murder are statutorily ineligible for SB 819 reconsideration. Convictions and sentences for any level of murder or first degree rape, sodomy and unlawful sexual penetration are presumptively ineligible for SB 819 review pursuant to this policy. Convictions and sentences for a crime under ORS 137.700 (Measure 11) or a crime involving child abuse or domestic violence will only be eligible for SB 819 reconsideration in rare circumstances.

The following criteria will make an application presumptively ineligible for SB 819 review:

- Application is incomplete or includes false or misleading information
- Defendant’s case is eligible for a set aside pursuant to ORS 137.225
- Defendant’s case is currently pending appeal or post-conviction relief
- Defendant owes outstanding victim restitution
- Defendant has not served at least 50% of the original sentence
- Defendant has been convicted of a criminal offense in any jurisdiction after the crime in which reconsideration is being sought
- Defendant has pending charges in any jurisdiction
- A request from the same defendant was denied in the last 36 months
- The petitioner has applied for any form of clemency in the last 36 months
- If sentenced to probation, defendant has not successfully completed probation or was revoked
